THE STORY

Kitty Malloy has just entered Winston College and is enjoying her first evening making friends in the rowdy atmosphere of Davey's Dive, a gathering place for Winston students. The gang's high spirits are dampened considerably when Sammy, the editor of the school paper tells them that one of the colleges wealthiest donors has announced that he believes the school to be infested with subversive elements and that he intends to withdraw his daughter Carol from the student body.

When all attempts at arbitration fail, the students decide to raise some money by presenting a show and are fortunate enough to secure the services of a Hollywood singing star, Hedy La Glam, who innocently disrupts the social life of the school almost beyond repair. Many difficulties and arguments make the student's undertaking a difficult one, but at the close of the last scene we can be reasonably sure that compus life will soom return to normal at Winston.
